

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

John Morris, 77, fined $25 as confidence man. Sent to Bridewell.

Charges for selling cocaine without a prescription filed against Truax, Greene & Co., and two other druggists.

Pete Ceate, 21, 2243 Emerson av., held as suspect in Frank De Maria murder.

Policeman Lally caught three men at hold-up. One ran. Turned 2 prisoners over to citizen. Shot escaping prisoner, Mike Scanlon. Others got away.

Dunkel's saloon, 3800 Armitage av., entered. Dunkel locked in laboratory. $60 taken.

Nicholas Pritzker, 2337 N. Kedzie av., robbed. $14.

Policeman Michael O'Connor kicked and beaten by 4 men at Mary Rosebrock's saloon, 1059 Addison st. Sluggers captured.

George Francis, 18, negro, escaped from Evanston jail. Was held to grand jury for burglary.

Jack Durand, 10, Lake Forest, hit by auto truck. Leg broken.

$10,000 given to charity in honor silver anniversary of J. Harry Selz wedding.

Dominick Pluso, 3, 3819 S. LaSalle st., saved Rosie Anton, 3, 3809 S. LaSalle st., from being hit by buggy. Severely injured.

A. F. Banzenmacher, 626 Gary pl., up for desertion. Claims wife's 3 dogs drove him from home. Charges dismissed.

William Owenberg, 3, and Leslie Lugg, 4, 5427 Cottage Grove av., turned train robbers. Picked up by policeman. Spanked.

Att'y Frederick E. Von Ammon wants divorce. Desertion.

William I. Hutchinson, 2703 Prairie av., sued for $10,000 by Mrs. Carrie Crossman, Joliet, for alienating hubby's affections.

Edw. Hlavaty, Oak Park, found dead in 18th st. bridge pit. Coroner investigating.

Widow of Carl Wesollowski slapped sister-in-law at funeral. Arrest. Funeral postponed.

Johnson Barkman, 65, 17 Racine av., robbed by 3 men. Lost $800.

Mrs. Sarah E. Foster, 213 W. Garfield blvd., indicted by federal grand jury for using mails to defraud.

Richard Schultz given death penalty for murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Healy.

Bid for construction of Wilson av. tunnel received. H. M. McGovern lowest bidder. $1,200,000.

Sound methods urged in church work. Rules of commercial life applicable to Bible teaching, say Sunday school heads.

50,000 men expected to march in Bible class parade today. 50 altars to be borne on shoulders of marchers.

Mrs. Anna Kerr, 730 N. State st., threw bowl of soup at hubby and boarder. Men were fighting. Arrested. Fined $5.

Warm meeting of County Board. McCormick attacked audit of finance committee. Commissioners Harris and Coonley quarreled over Oak Park quiz.

Frederick J. Sanford, 4942 Blackstone av., bankrupt. Owes $210,389. Assets $2,600.

Special building permit refused for Stratford Hotel. Ordinance increasing height of skyscrapers on Michigan av. to 260 feet favored.

Council committee unable to agree on compensation for vacation of Stone st. Palmer estate lawyer denied offer of $10,000 for withdrawal of opposition.

Joseph Taffarolae, 8, 846 Austin av., hit by street car. Condition serious.

Frank Ryan, 4056 W. Madison av., robbed $40.

Marion Deering to wed Chauncey McCormick in Paris July 7.

Miss Mary Daley, 5116 W. Woodlawn av., saw driver hit horse. Chas-